1941 YEAR BOOK

Foreword . .

To many students the close of this year means the end of a long and varied experience; to others this will continue for a few more years. But in a sense Graduation brings to a close for all of us an era of development full of smiles and tears, pleasure and hard work. Some are able to look back over this period with a sense of pride in work well done; others regretfully see the unfinished work, the unopened books and the unseized opportunities. Yet, to all of us, however, it will ever be a pleasure to reminisce on the friendships and good times we have enjoyed. It is for the keeping alive of these pleasant memories and associations that we, the Year Book Committee of the Class of 1941, have produced this book.

The Arlington

YEAR

THE SENIOR CLASS

Dedication . . .

On the 20th day of December of this year one of our classmates, beloved by all who knew him, was suddenly taken from our midst; yet his immortal spirit hovers over this class of 1941. In tribute to his pleasing personality, enterprising mind, and buoyant spirit this book is respectfully dedicated to William White.

"I shall not forget that sorrowful night
When the Almighty God took William White,
His death has saddened all our city
And called from us our deepest pity,
For we all loved this happy kid
And every little thing he did.
The earth, too, was unhappy for it grumbled that night,
The stars dimmed low and out of sight
And then the Heavens shed their tears.
Later, they took him in for his eternal years."

A Tribute to Miss Treat

From this life has been taken one of the dearest friends of youth. In this person, youth found an understanding, sympathetic listener. Her heart was not limited in its likes but tenderly went out to all. Still we can see her magnificent smile brightening her whole countenance, and to our ears come the sounds of a quiet, soothing voice. She has taught us not to seek the easy way but the best, even though it be the hardest; for in this way, our characters and personalities will be strengthened. Although our hearts are saddened by the loss of a wonderful friend, we should be grateful for the blessing of having known this person who has bestowed on us her beautiful philosophy of life.

HERMAN GAMMONS, Principal

Appreciation

As our last year at Arlington High School draws to a close we, the class of 1941, take this opportunity to express heartfelt thanks to Mr. Gammons for all he has done for us. We do not think of him merely as a principal but rather as our friend and confidant. Throughout the years to come we will remember him for his friendliness, leadership, and his cheerful spirit, and especially for his genuine interest in our welfare.

Faculty

To the faculty of Arlington High School, who by their patience, understanding, and kind efforts have endeared themselves to us, we, the graduating class, owe a debt repayable only through our success.

History of the Class of 1941

When we, the class of 1941, entered Arlington High School in September, 1938, we were rather fearful yet eager to see how the proverbial nonentity was to be treated. We were prepared for the worst, but Mr. Gammons quickly reassured us with his helpful and kindly advice. After several weeks of being sent to the boiler room or the roof by those awesome seniors, we settled down to make our sophomore year one to be remembered.

First of all came football and fame for our class through Arthur Blanchard who rose from water-boy to stardom in the first few games. Our "first" season ended victoriously as we defeated our traditional rival, Melrose, on Thanksgiving Day.

This year proved to be exceptionally surprising in athletic contests. In hockey, Art Blanchard was the shining soph again when we became champions of the league. In basketball the team tied for top place but lost out in the playoff.

Baseball also brought more fame to the class when Art Blanchard, Walter O'Leary, and "Red" Kelley, promising players, were definitely partly responsible in helping our team win top honors in the Suburban League.

The Dramatic Club's production, "Excursion," was a huge success. Terry Shuman showed unusual talent and promised to be one of the future actors of A. H. S.

The Gilbert and Sullivan Club's operetta, the "Mikado," was very successful and humorous.

Thus ended our sophomore career and we entered school the next fall as unimportant in-betweens, the juniors.

The class was deeply sorry to hear of the death of our English teacher, Miss Pattison, during the summer vacation, and also of the sudden deaths, in the fall, of our classmates, Rita Dempster and Kenneth Forsaith.

This year the end of an otherwise good football season was black-marked by a defeat by Melrose and in hockey we landed in fourth place in the league. However, the ski team brought glory to our school with the cup from the Mt. Hood Carnival.

"House Beautiful," presented by the Dramatic Club, was a rather difficult play to produce, and was not very outstanding. But considerable talent was discovered in Barbara Birch and Wilmer Hayes, who gave commendable performances.

In baseball, Art Blanchard, Walter O'Leary, and "Red" Kelley proved their predicted worth as they helped the team reach the semi-finals in the state playoffs.

This year the Gilbert and Sullivan Club presented the operetta, "Pirates of Penzance," which was very well liked. Juniors Betty Gilman, Thomas Cronin, and Dorothy Alsen represented the class by taking leads.

Next came one of the biggest highlights of our second year—the Junior Prom, sponsored by the Student Council. This gala event turned out to be one of the most successful of our dances.

Then the long-awaited day arrived. Vacation over, we entered school for our senior year. What pleasure and satisfaction of revenge on previous tormentors we received from bewildering and misguiding the infant sophomores! But soon we buckled down to make something of our final year.

Art Blanchard definitely caught the spotlight as top-ranking athlete of Arlington High. Captain of three teams, football, baseball, and hockey, he led them through the seasons with true sportsmanship and ability. The football season was very satisfactory but was again disappointingly marked by a loss to Melrose. In hockey the tables were turned. Our standing was by no means high but we had the distinction of being the only team to beat Melrose, who was then champion of our league and who has since become champion of New England.

"Tommy" Cotter, our basketball captain, was second leading scorer in the league and led our team through another victorious season.

This last year many of our seniors won leading roles in the two big annual productions. The Dramatic Club play, "What a Life," in which Harry Hansen, Robert Strong, Constance Wilkshire, and Terry Shuman had leading parts, was rated by the critics as the most outstanding presentation in the club's history. And indeed it was. Harry Hansen's antics as Henry Aldrich will long be remembered by those who saw them. The Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, "Gondoliers," was equally successful. This was the biggest and most difficult production the club has undertaken and the cast came through with flying colors. Leading roles were played by Betty Gilman, Marguerite King, Thomas Cronin, Dorothy Alsen, Richard Cunha, Leonard Roberts, and Donald Lindahl.

Early in the fall the following Senior Class officers were elected: Richard Ryrholm, President; Natalie Moore, Vice President; Alyce MacQueston, Secretary; James Kelley, Treasurer.

The class was deeply saddened by the sudden death of our popular classmate, William White. "Billy" was the efficient manager of the football team and always had a smile for everyone.

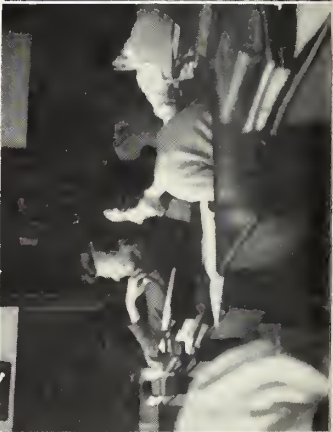

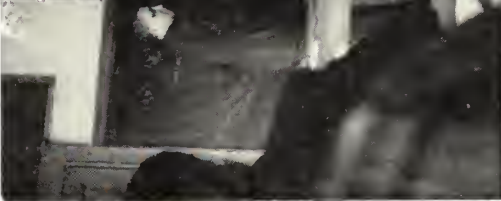

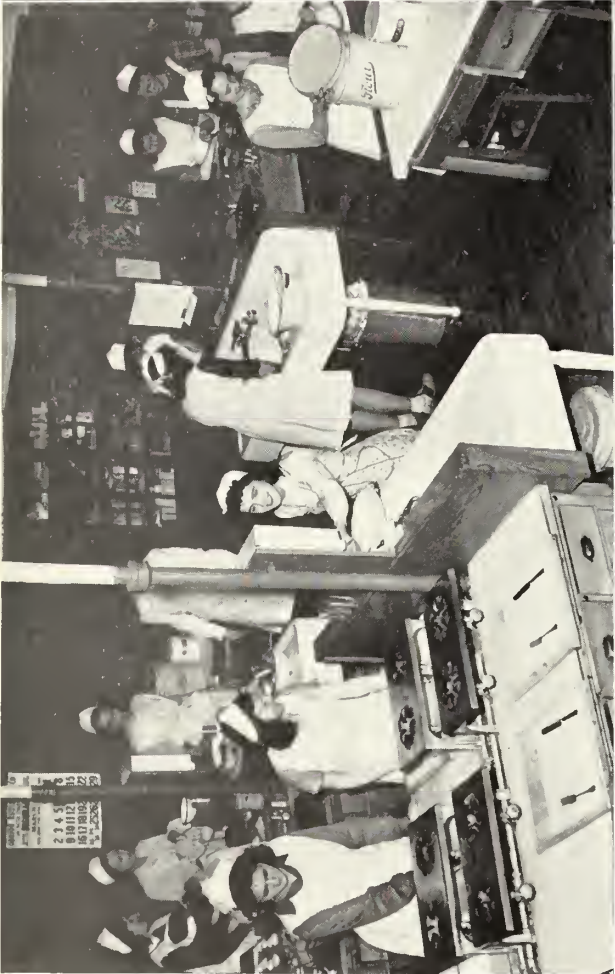

Also at the beginning of the year members of the Student Council were elected. Two of our seniors, Arthur Blanchard and Constance Phillips, became President and Secretary respectively. The Council has sponsored many successful sport dances and has helped solve the various problems that have come up from time to time.

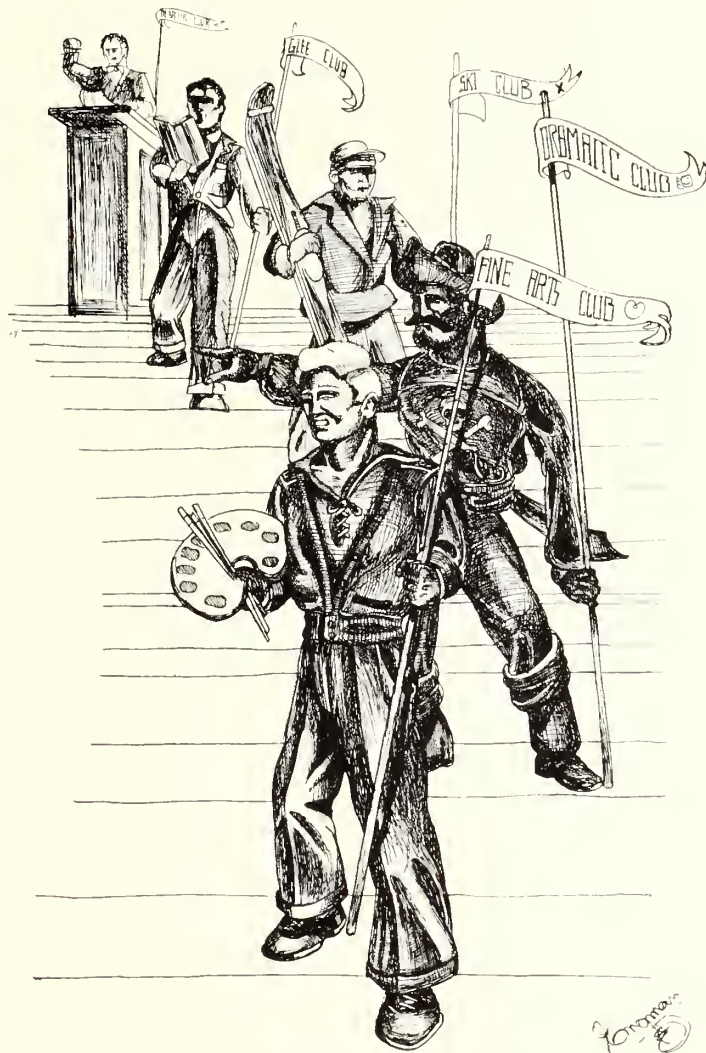

For the past five consecutive years the Glee Club has won highest honors in both the State and the All-New England Music Festivals. The girls are looking forward to adding another year to their unbroken record.

In March the whole school was deeply saddened by the death of our beloved English teacher, Miss Treat. We who knew her ceaseless patience and kindly guidance felt keenly the loss of our capable teacher and understanding friend.

Our final year also marks the final year of the Harvard-Arlington Guidance Study which began with our class in the eighth grade and has continued with us through the years. Dr. Rothney, his successor Mr. Roens, and Miss Collins have guided many of our members in choosing their courses, schools for higher education, and their vocation. It is our earnest hope that this work may be carried on in the future so that others may benefit as we did.

We can truthfully say that we appreciate all that our school has done for us and while we look forward to other schools and occupations, we regret that we must leave our school and our teachers who have given us so much of their time, effort, and understanding. May we never let them down.

Student Council

The Student Council is a body of students elected by their classmates to serve as a link between the faculty and students. It consists of twenty members: ten seniors, six juniors, and four sophomores, representing each class.

The functions of this body are varied and numerous. It establishes rules of conduct in the schoolrooms, lunchroom, and the school grounds. It advises Mr. Gammons of the students' opinions concerning matters and policies affecting them. The Junior Prom and the afternoon dances also come under its control. This year, through its suggestion, Christmas vacation was modified to suit both the students and the administration. All in all, this body has done much to foster school spirit and to improve student conditions.

The Student Council is a member of the Eastern Division of Student Councils of Massachusetts. One of our classmates, Mary Wylie, was elected secretary of this group. The officers of the Student Council for this year are:

President	Arthur Blanchard
Vice President	Patricia Dadmun
Secretary	Constance Phillips

Debating Club

The Arlington High School Debating Club is founded on the belief that it is essential to young men and ladies to know something about the art of oral expression. Our aim is to help a boy learn how to think logically while on his feet, to talk in a convincing manner with good voice, to learn how to criticise a debate, and to know something about parliamentary law and procedure. We further these aims by holding weekly debates, giving each member of the club an opportunity to debate, a turn as chairman, and a chance to prepare a critic's report, recognizing both the good and bad points of a debate. The best material in the club forms a nucleus known as the Varsity Team which competes with other schools in formal debate.

The club has increased considerably in the last three years and has established a highly commendable reputation, much thanks going to our sincere and untiring coach, Mr. Guy Petralia.

Dramatic Club

The Dramatic Club has had a very successful year with almost one hundred and fifty members and the following officers: Terry Shuman, Jr., President; Constance Wilkshire, Vice President; Barbara Birch, Secretary; and Wendell Hight, Treasurer.

We were ably directed by Mrs. Matthews and Miss Johnston, our faculty advisers, who have been assisted this year by Miss Virginia Bartelt of Curry College.

An innovation has been regular monthly meetings at which we have had a speaker or some demonstration concerning stage work. Once Miss Bartelt gave a humorous monologue; another time the art of stage make-up was demonstrated by Mr. Milton Matthews; and just before Christmas a very funny one-act comedy, The Christmas That Bounced, was presented.

For our major social affair we gave the Harvest Hop in November. It was a very pleasant evening for all who attended.

The main dramatic project of the year was the presentation of What a Life. This is reviewed on page eighty-five.

As usual the club expects to enter the Massachusetts Drama Festival which is to be held at Fitchburg this year, and hopes to go to South Portland, Maine, for the New England Festival.

"What a Life"

What a Life, by Clifford Goldsmith, was presented by the A. H. S. Dramatic Club at the Robbins Memorial Town Hall, February 15, 1941. It was a great success, both dramatically and financially. The house was completely sold out and a number of people were turned away. The audience was most enthusiastically responsive to the clever lines and amusing situations of the play, which satirically presents some problems of high school life. Eleven of the parts were played by seniors, and Phyllis Turner was a very efficient property manager. Terry Shuman, Jr., gave a remarkably convincing portrayal of the middle-aged principal; Constance Wilkshire was both business-like and charming as the secretary; Nancy Duncan was a dignified and poised Mrs. Aldrich; and Harry Hansen brought shouts of laughter from the audience by his skillfully-pointed interpretation of the lines of Henry Aldrich. Much of the success of the performance was due to excellent dramatic characterization in each part down to the very smallest.

Stamp Club

The Stamp Club has enjoyed a most successful year. The members have combined fun with their desire to learn more about this interesting and popular hobby.

The members have received their information in the form of lectures and brief talks from Mr. Skinner, the able sponsor, as well as from other stamp-minded teachers.

The purpose of this club is to arouse in pupils an active interest in stamps and to further the interest of those who have already commenced to collect stamps.

This year, the sixteen members have increased considerably their stamp collections, but, perhaps more important, they have acquired an intimate knowledge of what they are collecting.

This year's officers are

President	Anne Louise Turcotte
Vice President	Barbara Schwamb
Secretary-Treasurer	Francis Brawley

Fine Arts Club

The aim of the Fine Arts Club is to encourage individual abilities and interests of the students in a more specialized and creative way than daily class work permits. The nature of the club allows everyone an opportunity to work out his own techniques in drawing or painting ideas or in developing an appreciation of related arts.

The club is divided into two sections. The students in the creative painting division are interested in drawing or painting chiefly from the illustrator's point of view. Those in the second division are actively interested in the related arts of music, drama and literature. They combine their class work in art with extra curricular work in these related arts as listeners, however. Mr. Kenney is in charge of the club.

Girls' Glee Club

Again, as in the past, the Girls' Glee Club will end a most successful year by competing in the State and All-New England Festivals. To equal the performance of their predecessors and uphold the A. H. S. Glee Club's tradition for excellence, highest honors must be won; however, with such a superb aggregation in which are listed many distinguished vocalists, the grade of highest honors is inevitable.

Once more Miss Ethelwyn Wardle is the most efficient directrix. Evelyn Barry is the accompanist.

In addition to the festivals the club has already put on several successful performances at the Arlington Women's Club and various school assemblies.

Gilbert and Sullivan Club

The year 1940-41 will mark the end of the fifth season of the A. H. S. Gilbert and Sullivan Club, an organization formed to cultivate and promote interest in the famous works of the men whose names the club has adopted at its title. The rapid growth of this interest is shown by the fact that the club now possesses a membership of over one hundred aspiring stars.

As has been the custom since it was first conceived, the club will produce a famous Gilbert and Sullivan Operetta. This year's choice is the "Gondoliers" to be presented in May. Practice is already under way under the talented direction of Mr. L. Hassler Einzig and a stellar cast, consisting of such prominent singers as Marguerite King and Thomas Cronin, Leonard Roberts, Donald Lindahl, Dorothy Alsen, Richard Cunha, Betty Gilman, Richard Smith, Anita Le Blanc will insure a successful and enjoyable performance.

Officers:

President	Marguerite King
Vice President	Thomas Cronin
Secretary	Alyce MacQuestion
Assistant Secretary	Constance Rieck
Treasurer	Barbara Miller
Pianist	Barbara McDevitt

Orchestra

This year, as in years preceding, Arlington High School possesses a meritorious, well proportioned orchestra. It consists of purely amateur musicians who gain enjoyment and proficiency by coming back Tuesday and Friday afternoons for an hour and a half to play delightful orchestral selections under Mr. L. Hassler Einzig's competent direction.

The orchestra performed at many assemblies during the school year. In addition it played before and in between the acts of the Dramatic Club's production of "What a Life"; the orchestra will also provide the music for the performance of "The Gondoliers" to be put on by the Gilbert and Sullivan Club this spring. Already they are rehearsing music to be played at the State Music Festival. We are sure that they will again bring home a class A rating.

First Row: Pecor, J. Mallette, Davies, M. Slater, B. Birch, J. Brine, Mr. Witherell, Miss Williams, W. Lane, M. Pierce, G. Fredrieson, E. Riley, A. Murphy, L. Gutteridge, R. Gott, P. Lewis, McFadden, Hurley. Fourth Row: Nevin, Henrickson, Marshal, Casey, Foster, Keefe, O'Riley, Pratt, O'Neil.

Ski Club

Due to the splendid cooperation of the members and the willing direction of Mr. Witherell, the A. H. S. Ski Club has become more prominent and successful each year. This present season saw its membership swelled to 100 students whose only object in joining was the satisfaction derived from true sportsmanship.

Although the Dartmouth Alumni Ski Trophy, won by Arlington last year at the Mount Hood Interscholastic Ski Meet, went to Melrose this season, the Arlington skiers, notable among whom were Marilyn Peirce, Eileen O'Riley who carried off individual trophies, placed third in the scoring. In addition to this event, the club competed in two minor meets with the surrounding towns at the Commonwealth Country Club and ranked second in each. Let us hope the team will do as well next year.

Officers for the 1940-1941 season were:

President	William Lane
Vice President	Marilyn Peirce
Treasurer	Wilbur Rawding
Secretary	Joseph Brine
Assistant Secretary	Barbara Birch

G. A. A.

Two years after its conception finds the members of that eminent society, the Girls' Athletic Association, more familiarly known as the G. A. A., increased to an even hundred. The reason for this augmentation is its numerous entertaining convivial activities. At the commencement of the school year, the G. A. A. sponsored a combination hike and wienie roast which was well attended and enjoyed by all present. Inspired by this success, the girls next conceived the idea of a football rally before the Melrose game which greatly aided in the valiant struggle of the players. Then a Christmas party, a mixed ping pong tournament, and an old-fashioned dance were held. All were greatly appreciated by the participants. At present, plans are being made for a fashion show which most assuredly will be one of the high spots of the '41 entertainment of A. H. S.

The officers and chairmen who skillfully arranged and carried out the activities mentioned above were:

Vera Wing
Jean Rooney
Ruth Burke
Janet Pillsbury

Harriet Smillie
Eleanor Torngren
Patricia Hession
Mary Campbell

Cheer Leaders

Will you come to the football game today
 To see the battle and fray?
 Go? Yes. But if I appear
 'Twill be to espy those heroes who cheer.

At the game I sit, my pulse throbbing fast
 And watch the A. H. S. grid team roll past.
 Just as the spirit of the boys disappears,
 Up jump those heroes to aid with their cheers.

They laud the runner, tackler, and man who blocks out.
 They encourage the crowd with a "Come on, let's shout!"
 This imbues in the players great determination.
 The result is a win. What a game! A sensation!

So forget not in years to come
 The service by these heroes done.
 And when the thought of football appears
 Remember those who lead the cheers.

Band

The A. H. S. Band, that perennial favorite of music lovers and football fans alike, again ostentatiously performed their inimitable marching feats and pedantically played their inspiring tunes at the football games to the delight of all attending. Led by that stalwart drum major, Leon Blanchard, upon whose shoulders rested the successful manoeuvring in order to form the letters, A. H. S. or those of the opponent's school, the presence of the band created much pomp and ceremony, which was enhanced by the presence of fifteen pretty twirlers who marched in front of the other fifty members of this complete, well balanced band.

This year, instigated by the desire to obtain new uniforms, the band presented a program which featured Mr. Hans Helms, an instrumental singer. The performance was well attended and the proceeds most gratifying.

Once again the band was directed by Mr. L. Hassler Einzig and Mr. Augustus Mazzocca under whose competent direction the band always has and will continue to prosper.

First Row: T. Cotter, J. Arsenault, W. O'Leary, R. Manning, P. Keefe, A. Blanchard, Capt., J. Burke, F. Willard, R. Ryrholm, C. Tenney. Second Row: Tony Sarousky, Mr. Lang, T. Sullivan, G. Football

This year's A. H. S. football team, led by its star and captain, Arthur Blanchard, was one of the best in the history of Arlington High School. Arlington appeared to be a failure when it lost its first game, but A. H. S. class asserted itself, and the team made a great comeback by defeating Lowell, Fitchburg, Malden, Chelsea, and Brockton in that order, then, downhearted by the injury of a great back, Paul Keefe, Arlington lost to a fighting underdog team at Salem. However, the team returned to give Medford its worst defeat in years. The Thanksgiving game, with its bitter cold weather, and field of solid ice, was a real battle, but the Melrose boys won eight to seven.

The consistent outstanding performances of Captain Art Blanchard, Bud Willard, and Walter O'Leary, who were awarded cups for being most accomplished, most improved, and most cooperative respectively, and of "All-Scholastic" Flynn and Brillante were most conspicuous. Co-captains Tobin and Leary will lead A. H. S. to victory next season.

First Row: J. Pillsbury, V. Wing, J. Rooney, J. Walker, H. Smillie. Second Row: M. Tierney, Miss McCarty, F. Maloney, G. Fredrikson, E. Torngren, P. Dadmun, M. Campbell, P. Hession.

Field Hockey

This year's A. H. S. field hockey team enjoyed a successful season suffering two closely contested losses out of seven games. The team consisted of many potential stars, most notable among them being Captain Jean Rooney, erstwhile goalie who left her position to strengthen the forward line. Other standouts include Janet Pillsbury, Vera Wing, Harriet Smillie, Margaret Tierney, Patricia Dadmun, Patricia Hession, Faith Maloney, and Geraldine Walker.

Conclusive evidence of the team's ability is the fact that the girls received the honor of being one of the two teams chosen to play an exhibition game at the Wellesley College Tournament.

Miss McCarty, the experienced athletic monitor, once again was responsible for the excellent coaching resulting in the fine showing of the team. Mary Campbell admirably performed her duties as manager.

The schedule was as follows: Concord, Winthrop, Winchester, Belmont, Melrose, Lexington, and Medford.

First Row: J. McCulloch, Doc MacCarthy, W. Hayes. Second Row: D. Geary, R. Ryrholm, E. Caples, J. Kelly.

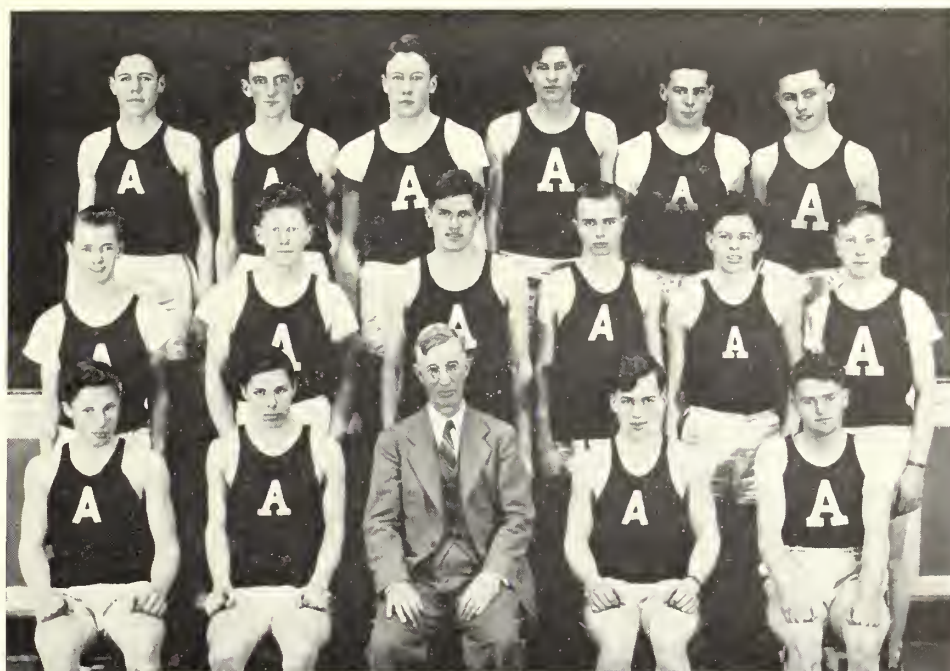

Cross Country

Led by James "Red" Kelley and sparked by the Co-captains John McCulloch and Wilmer Hayes, the A. H. S. cross country team, consisting of such stand-out performers as Robert Ryrholm, Douglas Wilde, David Geary, and Edward Caples, maintained the high standards set by their predecessors and satisfactorily completed an extremely difficult schedule.

Having beaten Winchester, Wakefield, and Quincy, the A. H. S. harriers went down to their one and only defeat of the season as they bowed to the State Champions, Brockton. Undaunted by this setback, the team easily disposed of Chelsea and the formidable Tufts freshman team. The squad completed the season by capturing fourth position in the State Meet.

The team was again, as in former years, most ably coached by "Doc" McCarty who despite the gaps left by the graduation of Kelley, McCulloch, Hayes, and Ryrholm anticipates another strong aggregation next season.

Letters were awarded to McCulloch, Kelley, Ryrholm, Hayes, Wilde, Geary, and Caples.

Indoor Track

Although their first dual meet with Somerville was lost by a very slim margin, the 1941 indoor track team demonstrated their marvelous Mercurial powers in the most important issue of the season, the State Meet. In this event, the team gathered ten and a half points to place third in the Class B competition. The runners responsible for this superior exhibition were Wilmer Hayes, who won the one thousand yard championship; William Lane, who placed second in the three hundred; and a splendid relay team, composed of four outstanding runners, namely: Robert Ryrholm, "Red" Kelley, William Lane and Francis Waldren. In addition to these boys, other meritorious members of the team who made excellent showings in the dual meets, were Richard Ryrholm, Wallace Flynn, Louis Brillante, Francis Belanwitz, Edward Caples, Thomas Cronin, Paul Alexander, Hill, and Donald McCarty.

Despite the depletion graduation will make, the capable coach, "Doc" McCarty, has no doubt of producing another fine squad next season.

Hockey

The students of A. H. S. witnessed a season of rebuilding of a game but green hockey squad. Although the team finished seventh in the Greater Boston League, winning five and losing seven, the defeats were always hotly contested and lost by a very slim margin, usually one goal. The boys were always a constant threat to the top ranking teams.

A conclusive corroboration of Arlington's talents is the fact that three of its members, namely: Captain "Art" Blanchard, James Kelley and "Allie" Burns were selected all-scholastic.

By far the most formidable attestation of Arlington's ability was the game against the League leaders, Melrose. After a phenomenal display of team spirit, cooperation and skill, Arlington succeeded in upsetting the champions three to two.

Despite the fact that the team will be reduced by graduation of such efficient seniors as "Art" Blanchard, Jack Harvey, James Kelley, Owen McArdle, Edw. Maguire, John Maguire, and Paul Keough, with the return of "Eddie" Bennett, Jack Cunha, Ralph Bevins, Herb Ritchie, and Bronson Beardsley, Mr. Downs anticipates leading the League next season.

First Row: C. Giarrizzo, J. Rooney, E. Torngren, V. Wing, J. Pillsbury. Second Row: N. Turner, Miss McCarty, P. Dadmun, H. Smillie, A. Adams, A. Tarbox, C. Phillips.

Girls' Basketball

The A. H. S. girls' basketball team of 1940-41 proved very successful under the able coaching of Miss McCarty. Inspired by their adroit Captain, "Tillye" Torngren, and enhanced by the skillful shooting of Harriet Smillie, Janet Pillsbury, Vera Wing, and Jean Rooney, the team swept on to seven victories and two defeats. In addition to the gallant performances of those girls already mentioned, the skillful execution of their duties by Alice Adams and "Pinky" Tierney in guarding should also be commended.

This year's schedule included Alumnae, Reading, Winchester, Belmont, Melrose, Malden, Medford, Somerville and Lexington.

Next year, although many stellar performers are graduating, the return of many veterans insures another outstanding aggregation.

The following girls received letters: Harriet Smillie, Janet Pillsbury, Jean Rooney, Vera Wing, Captain Eleanor Torngren, Alice Adams, Margaret Tierney, Patricia Dadmun, and Camille Giarrizzo.

First Row: J. Mulloney, J. Burke, T. Cotter, D. Burke, R. Ryrholm. Second Row: J. Colliton, J. Sullivan, R. Powers, Mr. Fusco, J. Aulenback, E. Leary.

Boys' Basketball

The A. H. S. basketball team commenced this year's schedule under the able tutelage of a new coach, Mr. Fusco, who succeeded Mr. Lowder when the latter was elected faculty manager.

Possessing but two veterans, Captain Tommy Cotter and versatile "Richie" Ryrholm, the team entered competition and easily disposed of their primary opponents, winning four games straight. From then on, the rivalry was keener and the boys won and lost alternately, breaking about even. Probably the most interesting games were those played with Rindge, Waltham and Newton, every moment of which was most thrilling and exciting.

Due to the fact that this year's team was composed chiefly of juniors, including John Colliton, James Maloney, David Burke, John Burke, James Sullivan and Eddie Leary, Coach Fusco is already planning for next year, when he contemplates carrying off the honors of the Suburban League. We wish him and the squad the best of luck.

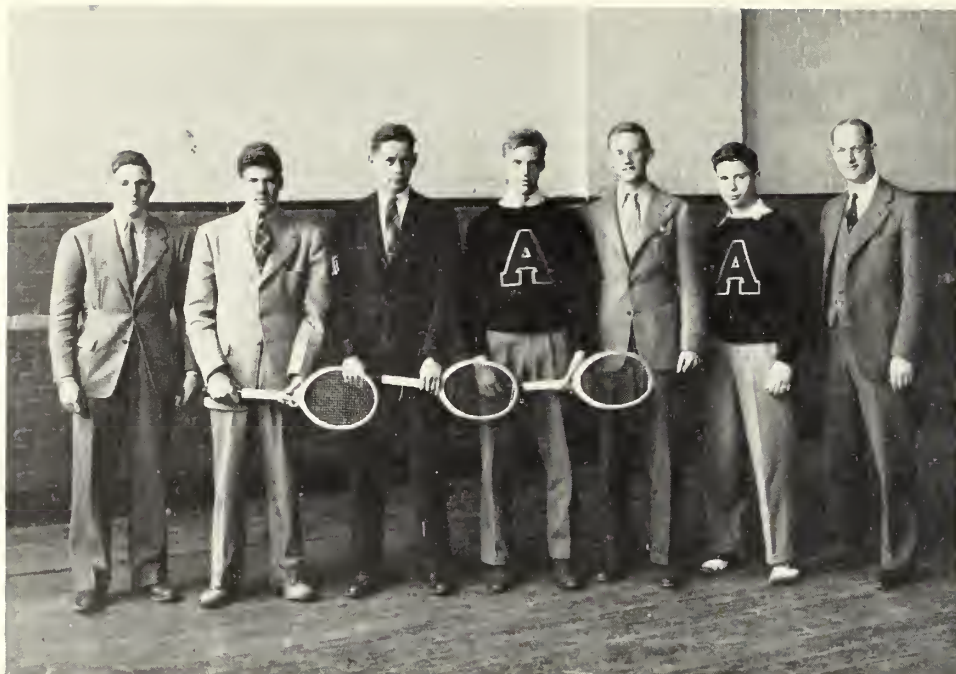

First Row: G. Walker, J. Rooney, V. Wing, P. Hession, G. Cole. Second Row: J. Pillsbury, Miss McCarty, E. Torngren, M. Tierney, E. O'Reilly, E. Blauer.

Girls' Baseball

The A. H. S. girls' baseball team should uphold the record of last year's spotless record and complete their rigid schedule undefeated. With many veterans of the successful 1940 season returning, among whom are two ace pitchers, Margaret Coyne and Jean Rooney, the pair of excellent batters and catchers, Helen Sheehan and Captain Vera Wing, this prediction is most probable. In addition to these talented players, other girls most worthy of note include Gloria Cole, diminutive but potent Betty Dorion, Edith Carlson, and Esther Blauer and Patricia Hession. These girls will form the nucleus of the team.

Miss McCarty will once again offer her capable services as coach and undoubtedly will produce this champion team. Eleanor Torngren, who will officiate in the capacity of manager, has arranged a schedule which includes Lexington, Belmont, Winchester, Medford, and Cambridge Latin.

First Row: S. Thompson, P. Garrity, R. Beers, C. Tenney, R. Beardsley, F. Willard, Mr. Wallace.

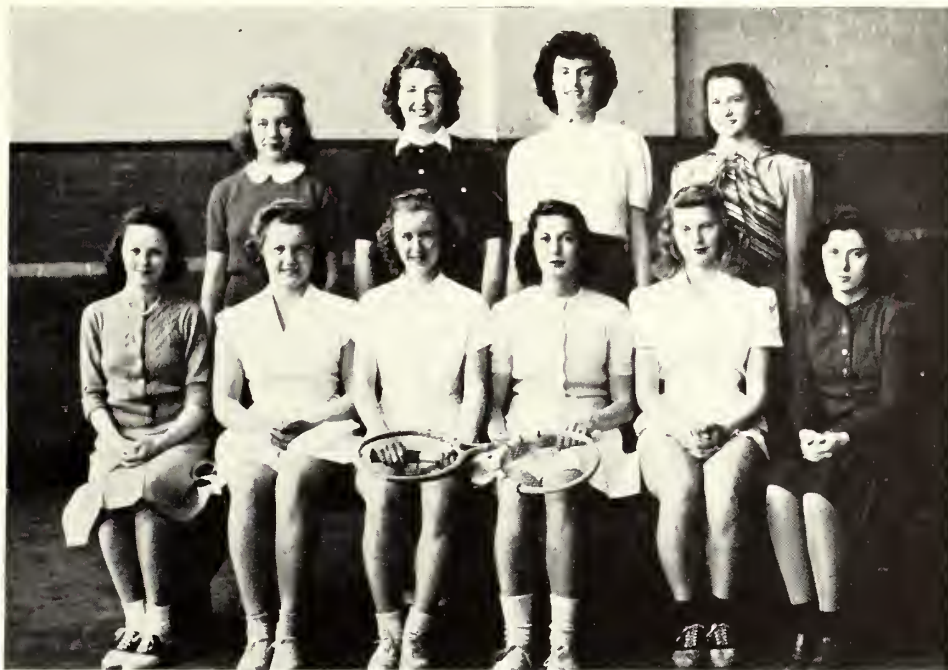

Boys' Tennis

With the return of four better than ordinary tennis stars, veterans of last year's most fruitful season, the A. H. S. tennis squad will indubitably capture the Suburban Tennis League Championship. The nucleus of the team will consist of the veterans, Creighton Tenney, Bronson Beardsley, Roland Beers, and John McCulloch. In addition to these adroit racket wielders, "Bud" Willard and Paul Garrity will constitute the team with one position remaining open.

Mr. Russell S. Wallace, Secretary of the Suburban Tennis League, will once again bestow his proficient coaching ability upon the team.

In addition to the League games, the A. H. S. team will take on Newton and Winchester. The Suburban Tennis League schedule for Arlington is as follows:

- May 7—Malden at Arlington
- May 8—Arlington at Melrose
- May 14—Watertown at Arlington
- May 15—Arlington at Winthrop
- May 21—Lexington at Arlington
- May 27—Arlington at Waltham
- May 29—Arlington at Belmont

First Row: M. O'Neil, P. Dadmun, R. Whitney, N. Cox, H. Smillie, M. McCarty. Second Row: B. Slade, M. Pierce, Miss Williams, B. Frink.

Girls' Tennis

In foretelling the inevitable outcome of this year's girls' tennis schedule, A. H. S. speculators "go out on a limb" to predict that their illustrious group of skillful feminine tennis players will rank very close to the top in the league. The basis for this prophecy hinges around the fact that the team consists almost entirely of girls who saw plenty of action last year. Incidentally, the 1940 record was very good considering that all but two of the girls were new. The players who will carry the A. H. S. standards are: Ruth Whitney, Mary O'Neill, Nancy Cox, Harriet Smillie, Betty Slade, Marilyn Fownes, "Patty" Dadmun.

Although the complete schedule is not yet available, that part already arranged shows that the majority of the games will be at home. The team will be coached this year by that inimitable tutoress Miss Williams. Good luck to her and to the girls.

First Row: R. Merrill, J. Burke, D. Burke, J. Harvey, Richard Ryrholm, J. Carrigan, D. Geary. Second Row: J. Hanlon, S. Pitman, T. Cotter, J. Tobin, Mr. Robinson, Robert Ryrholm, G. Manning, J. Fulton.

Golf

This year's A. H. S. golf team is anticipating one of its most successful seasons in recent years. With four formidable veterans returning, namely: Walter "Tyke" Wilcox, Jackie Harvey, "Richie" Ryrholm, and John Burke, the team should better last year's position of second in the league standing. In addition to these boys already mentioned, the team also has some promising newcomers in Robert Ryrholm, Joseph "Red" Tobin, Dave Burke and "Archie" Bullock.

Arlington High has always turned out champions and this year is no exception. "Tyke" Wilcox is State Junior Champion, Jackie Harvey is runner-up in the State Caddy Championship, and "Richie" Ryrholm is Champion of the Hatherly Country Club caddies.

Coach Robinson is expecting the boys to win the Greater Boston League Championship this season and then to enter the State competition. We wish them the best of luck.

First Row: J. Dolan, E. Willett, R. Edwards. Second Row: J. Delaney, R. Hannabury, W. Curtis, H. Hansen.

Forgotten Men

Under the efficient supervision of friendly Miss Parks, Miss Pennell and Miss Childs, the lunchroom boys and girls had an enjoyable and profitable time. The new cash registers were a great success. Under the expert tutelage of Edward Willett, Robert Hannibury, John Delaney and Ralph Edwards, the cash registers were not only more accurate, but they prevented the crowding in the hall—an action which was an everyday occurrence last year. Moreover, the cash registers helped to give the students a quicker service. The traffic managers, Harry Hansen, Joseph Dolan and Walter Curtis kept, or tried to keep an orderly, even line going to the counters. We hope that all you gourmands and ice cream fiends will always have a kind thought for the "Forgotten Men" of '41.

To be truly interesting a yearbook must have both typographic and pictorial appeal. It must be carefully planned, carefully printed, carefully bound. It is the permanent record of all that goes to make up school life, right to the very day of graduation.

Good yearbooks result only from specialization; from constant study of what constitutes good yearbook design; from the intelligent use of the aggregate knowledge and experience of artists, compositors, pressmen.

We have all of these things in our organization—ready to serve you as we are now serving a steadily increasing group of other schools and colleges. Your inquiries are invited.
